

Protect yourself. Protect one another.

There are more ways to reduce the risk than you think.

PrEP and PEP are medications you can take before or after possible exposure to HIV.

These medications can lower your chance of getting HIV.

Talk to your local public health unit or local AIDS Committee to learn more.

myhealthunit.ca/prep